Center of Excellence for Energy Scholarship– Phase I Eligibility Criteria

Full Name:

Student National ID Number:

Address:

Mobile number:

e-mail:

Gender: □ Male □ Female

Name of University:

Eligibility Criteria

The Applicant must:

1. Be of Egyptian Nationality □Yes □ No

2. Be eligible for registration at the Energy and Renewable Energy Engineering Program. □Yes □ No

3. Have achieved a minimum GPA of 3.0 □Yes □ No

4. Graduated from an Egyptian Public or Experimental school. □Yes □ No

5. Have a valid TOEFL/ITP, TOEFL/IBT, IELTS score (minimum: 500 in ITP, 60 in IBT, or 5 in IELTS). □Yes □ No

6. A Motivation Letter. □Yes □ No

7. Submit the online application by 11:59 PM August 14, 2019 with the complete package. □Yes □ No

The Complete Package must include a copy of the student's:

1. Egyptian National ID □Yes □ No

2. Valid TOEFL/ITP, TOEFL/IBT, IELTS score certificate □Yes □ No

3. Thanaweya Amma Certificate/Transcript □Yes □ No

4. Freshman year transcript □Yes □ No

5. Curriculum Vitae (CV) □Yes □ No

6. Recommendation letter from a faculty member supporting this application, indicating why the student is good candidate for the scholarship. □Yes □ No

7. A motivation letter □Yes □ No

8. Extracurricular activities certificate obtained during the Freshman year □Yes □ No

9. Financial Aid supporting documents (if any) □Yes □ No

10. Disability supporting documents (if any) □Yes □ No

The USAID-funded Center of Excellence for Energy implemented by the Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT) promotes and supports equal opportunities among its beneficiaries. The project strongly encourages the participation of women, persons with disabilities, and applicants with socio-economic disadvantages who meet the academic/professional eligibility criteria and stand out in the selection process for participation.

Reviewer's Comments:

Does this applicant fit the target group? Why?   ☐Yes ☐ No

Why is the applicant rejected?

Name of Reviewer:

Organization:

Signature:

Date: